GEORGE ROGERS CLARK HIGH SCHOOL

HAMMOND, INDIANA

"To the Young Americans Who Shall Be

Clark students are today's young Americans. In high school they learn, have fun and grow within themselves to become useful citizens.

This, then is the story of how George Rogers Clark School prepared them in 1958 to assume their roles as tomorrow's adult citizens.

Educated for Useful Citizenship in This School"

Living in the World . . .

. . . Knowing About It

Does history really repeat itself? Bill Etheridge presents his view in Mr. Charles Stevens' World History class as he points out ancient civilizations in the Middle Eastern area.

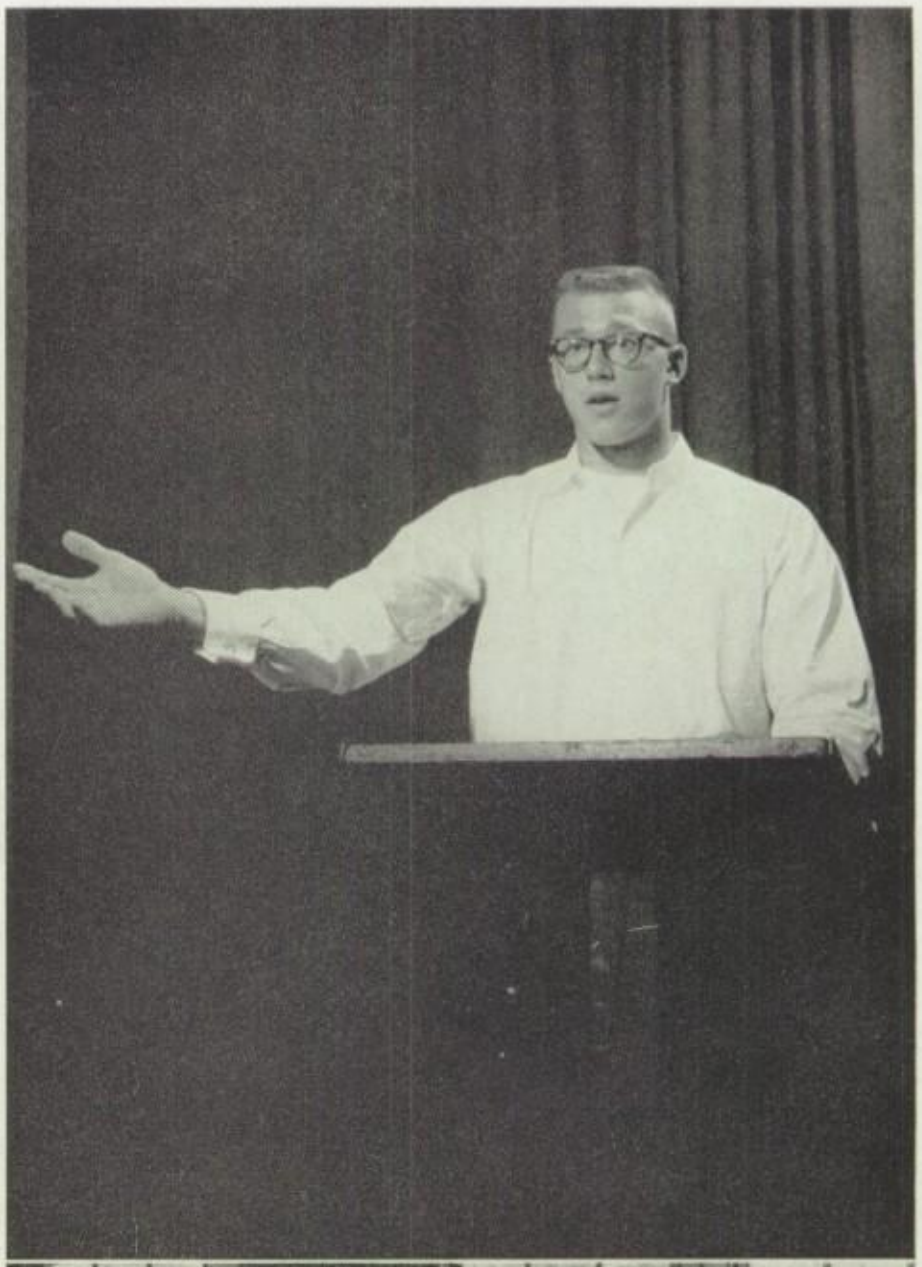
Mr. William Mueller has temporarily taken his eyes from the class, but his geography class stays awake.

Items of interest are displayed as John Gradek puts up a poster in Mr. Bernard Charlet's government class.

. . . Communicating In It

Because of student demand, world history was added to the social studies curriculum. Students studied important world events from Neanderthal Man to Sputnik, and they took a field trip to the Museum of Natural History in Chicago.

Gross illiteracies, ambiguity, and lack of concreteness plagued Seniors in Miss Helen Wulkow's advanced composition classes. "Comp" develops the fine points of writing so that college-bound students can be prepared for the challenges of university work.



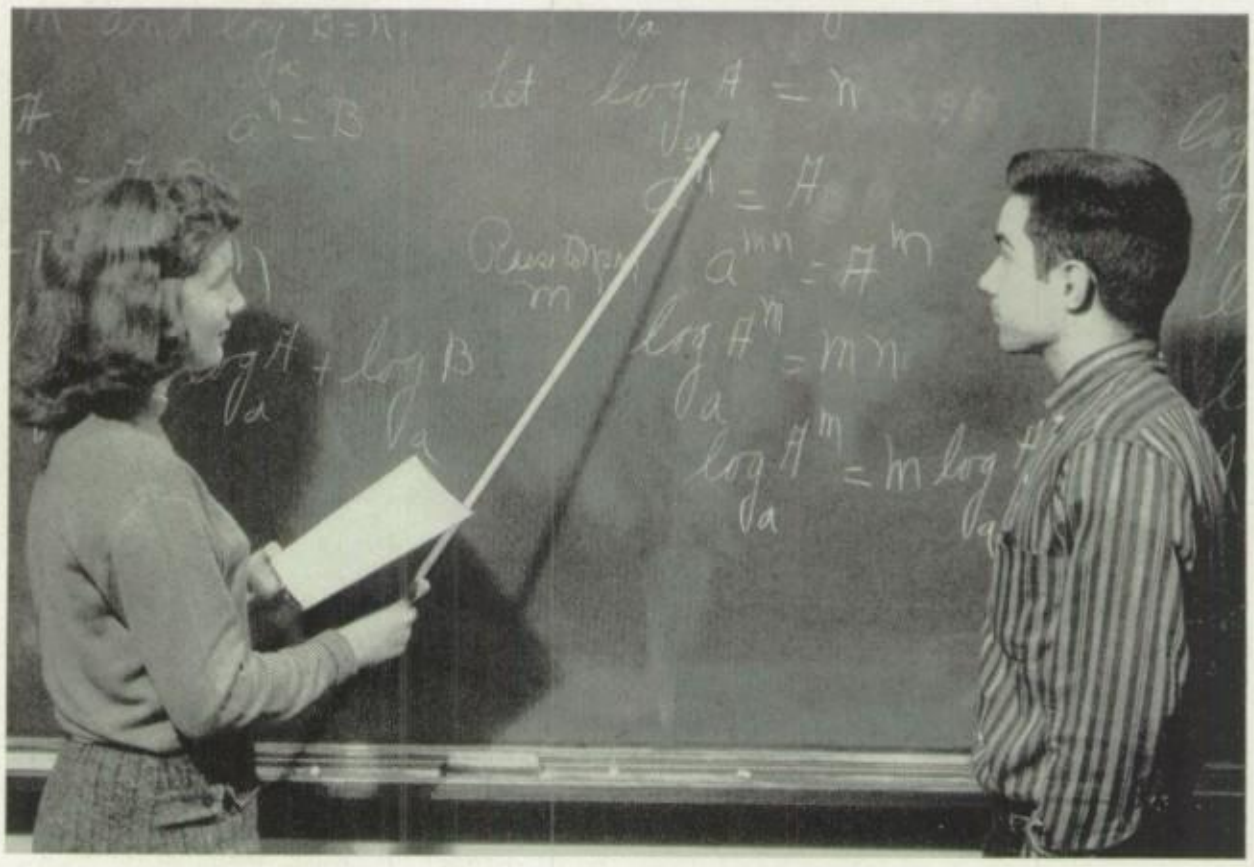
"If I'm elected I promise to . ." Paul Palko delivers a campaign speech as a part of public speaking.

In Miss Carolyn Lambert's junior English class, Bob Blaskey reads a parody on "Mary Had A Little Lamb."

Henry Sachar and Mel Hobbs gather references from the card catalogue in the library for their term papers.

Planning for Higher Education . . .

. . . Fulfilling College Prep Requirements



"Easy as falling off a log . ." or is it? Carol Kender explains a logarithm problem to John Figler in trigonometry.

Miss Elaine Garcia adorns Monette Brown with a mantilla in the second year Spanish class.

Caesar, the hero of all Roman history, watches over Mrs. Rebekah Eddy's sophomore Latin students.

. . . Probing Science's Wonders

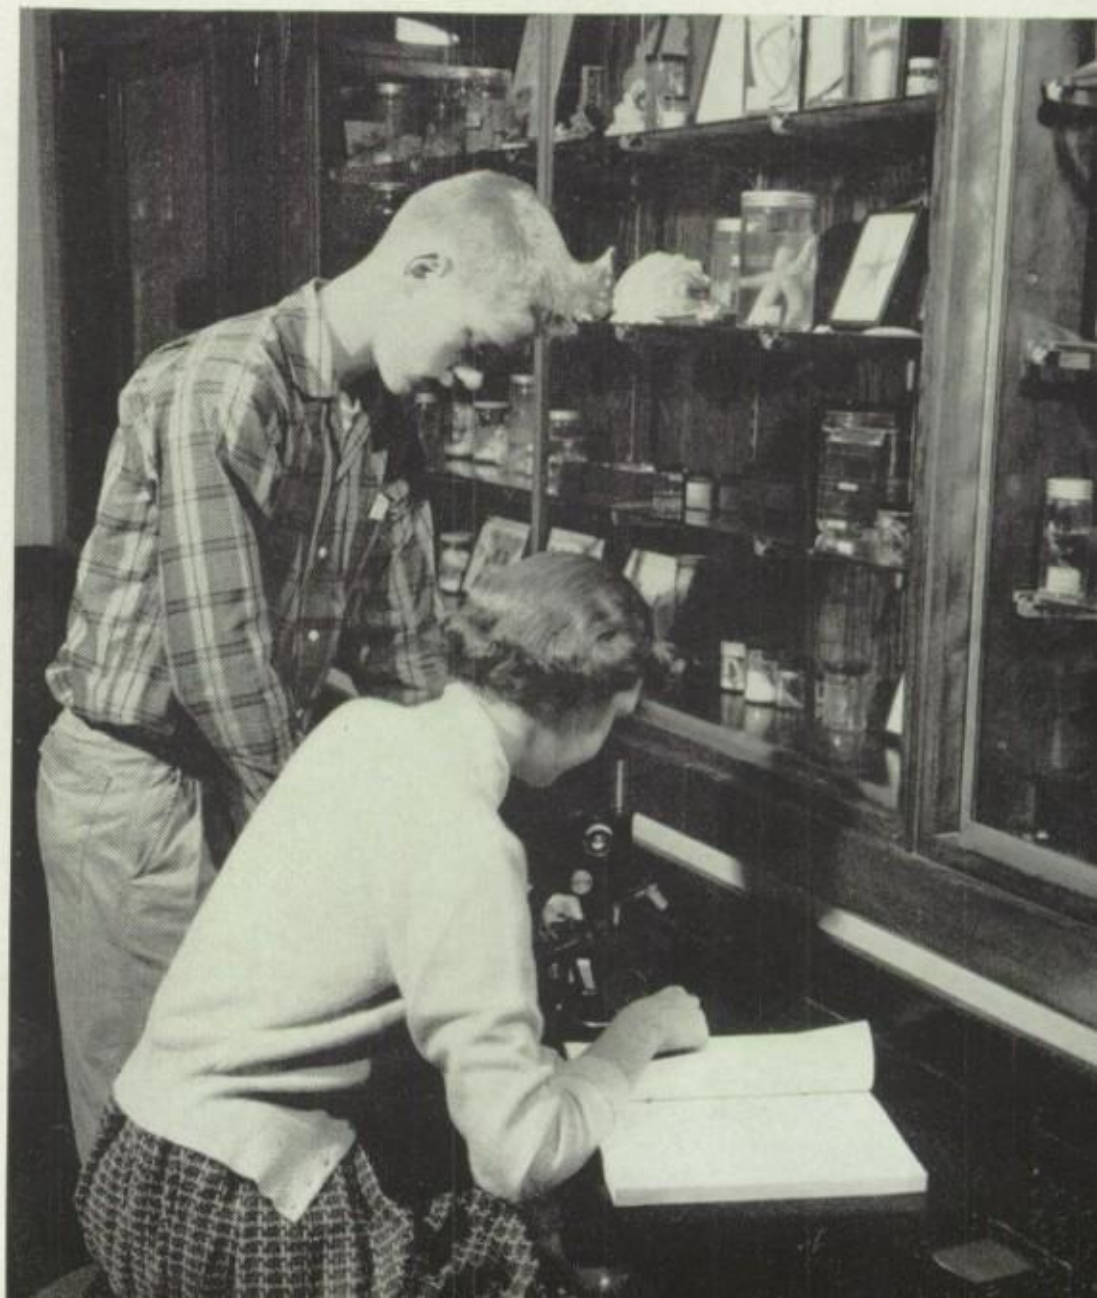
Every year, an average of 40% of Clark's graduating Seniors go on to college.

Eighty-five of 165 members of the class of '58 took the college preparatory course requiring two years of foreign language and higher mathematics besides regular graduation requirements. All took biology, and many went on to take physics and/or chemistry. They had a choice of German, Latin, or Spanish for their foreign language.

In October, fifty Seniors took the two-hour Scholarship Qualifying Test. Later, in December, January, and February, college-bound Seniors took the college board entrance exams required for enrollment in many colleges. To prepare for the exams, special classes were held after school Wednesdays.

Observations on Don Antkowiak's chemistry experiment are made by Marlene Mayercik and Dick Economou.

In biology Glenn Thoren and Dolores Banik find that the amoeba is basically the same as the human body.



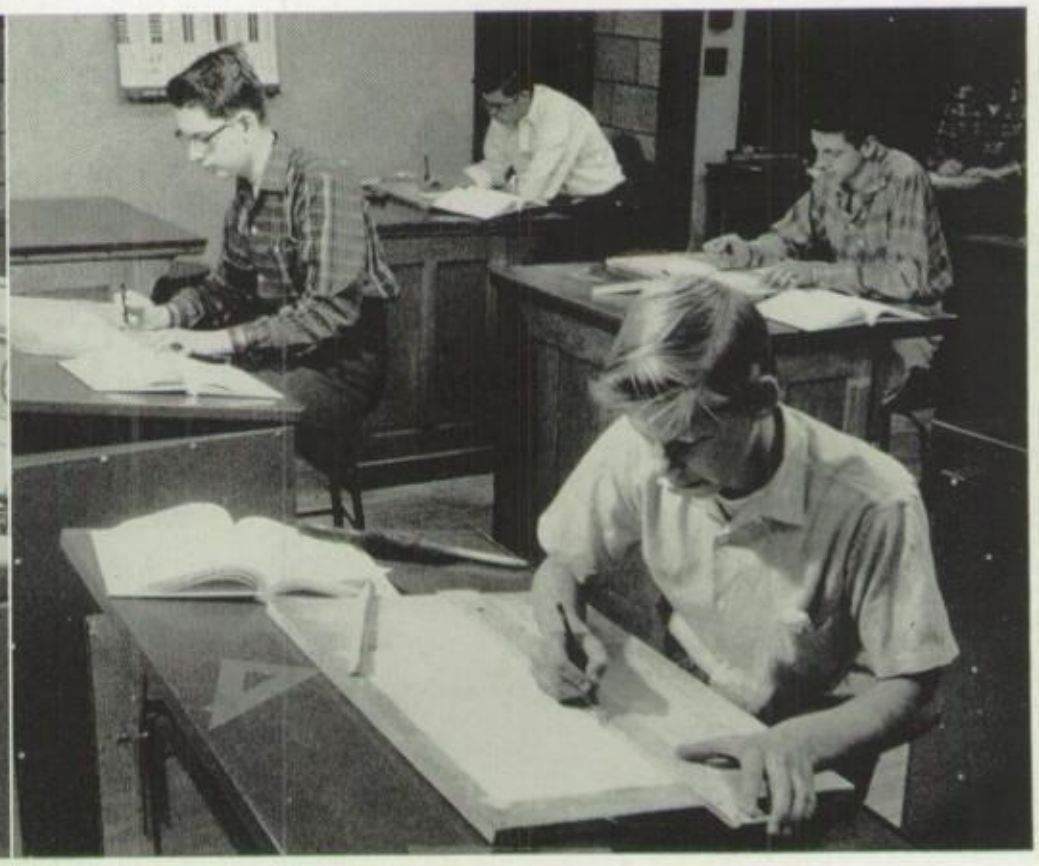
Learning by Doing . . .

. . . Pursuing Vocational and Domestic Interests

Gaining an insight to the business world are members of the new business machines class.

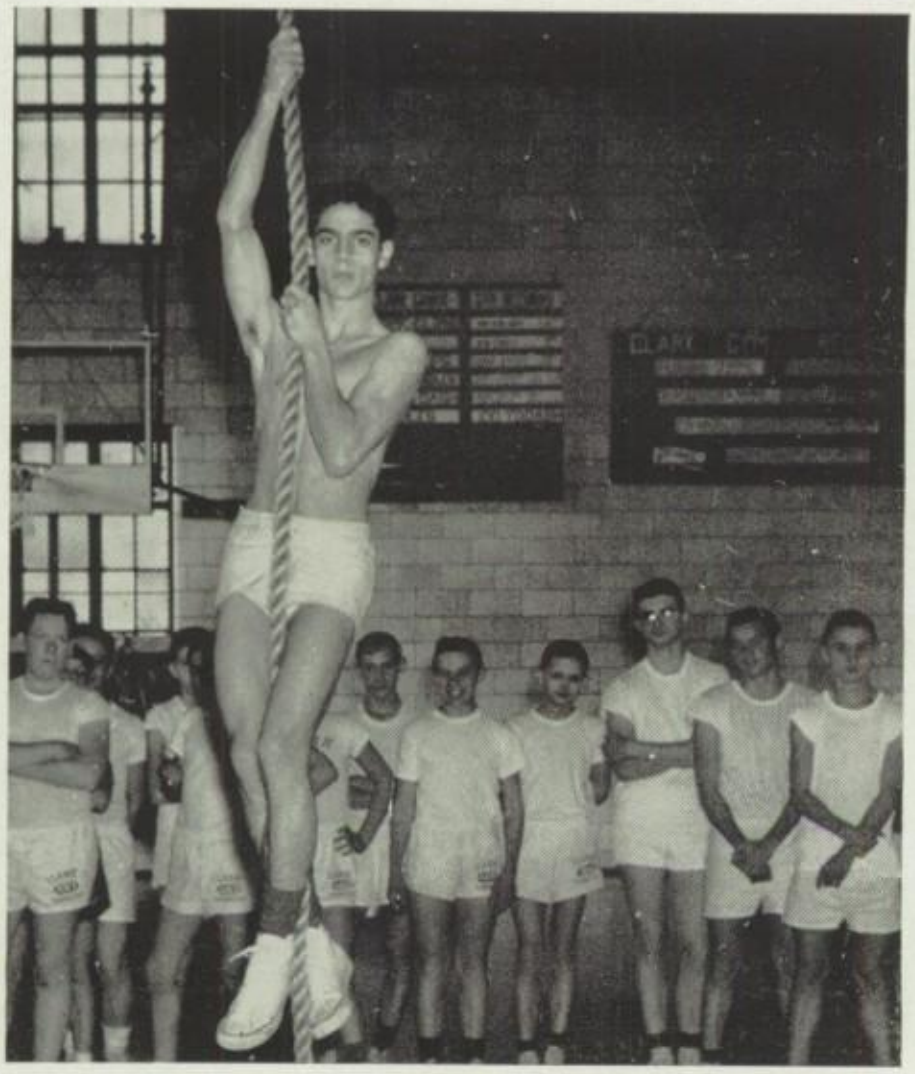
Recipe books help when Sandra Vince, Marcia Madura, and Alma Mazeika make a coffee cake.

Nick Curtis, David Macnak and Mark Markovich practice basic principles in mechanical drawing.

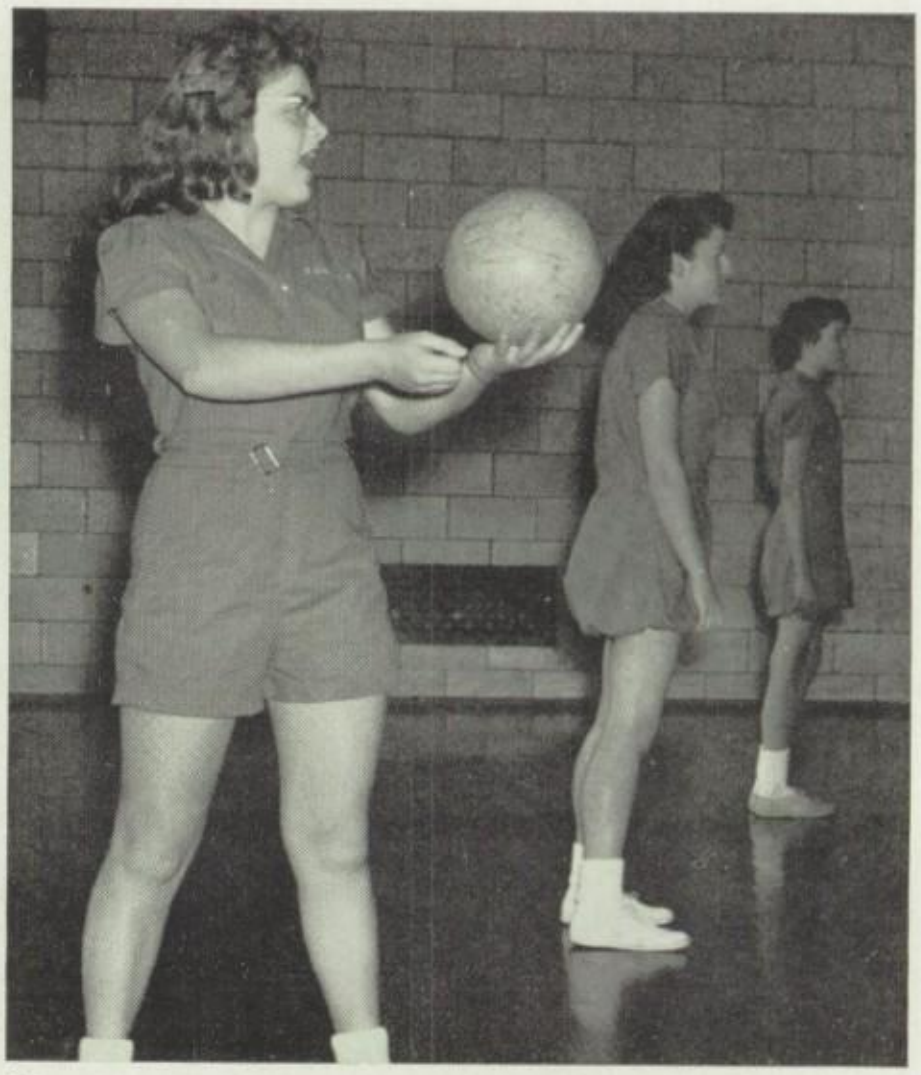


Developing Arts and Talents . . .

. . . Training Hands and Minds



Jim Verville slides down the rope after having speedily climbed it in boys' gym class.



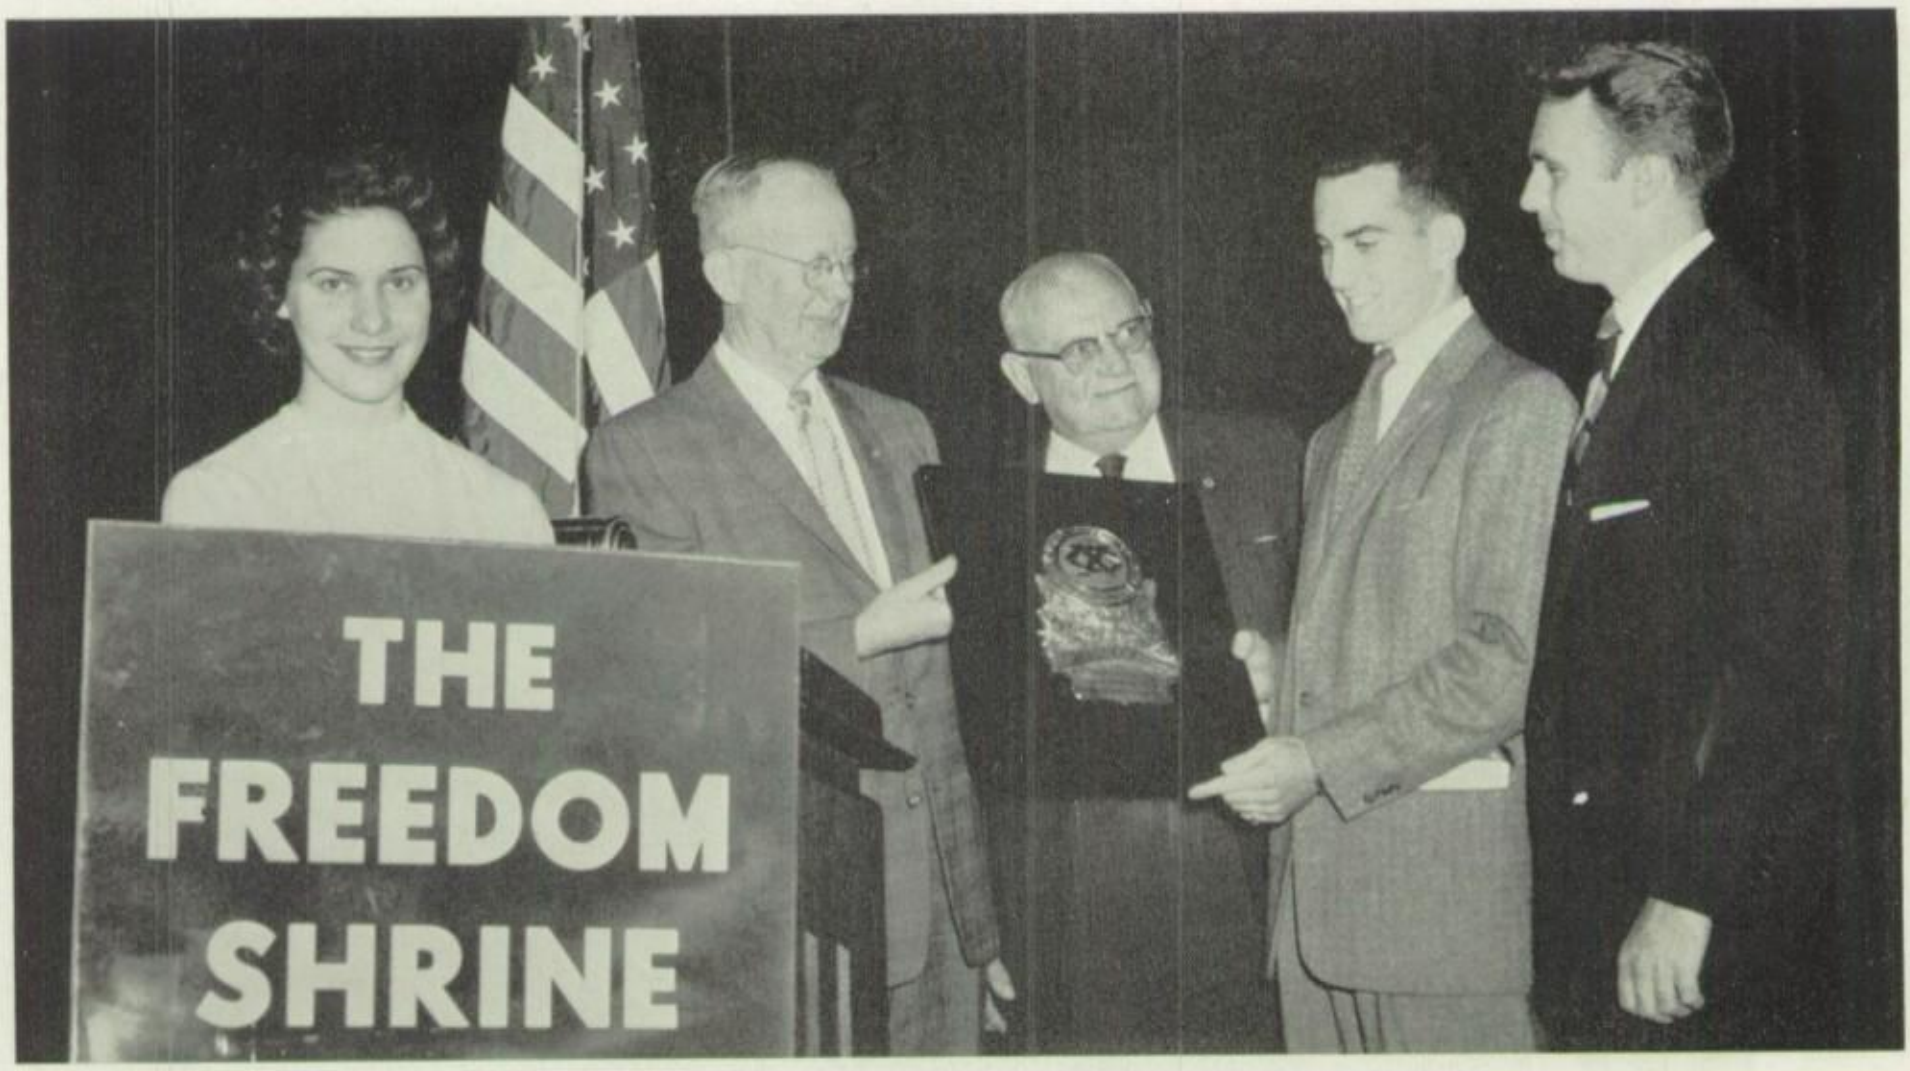
"Here it comes!" Barbara Gootee swings to serve the volleyball over the formidable obstacle of the net.

Members of the music appreciation class, which was offered this year for the first time to supplement Clark's cultural program, review the latest in the hi-fi world.

Broadening Interests Through Assemblies . . .

Celebrating Clark's silver anniversary last year, an entire week in May was set aside as the Frontier Festival. At the "Truth or Consequences" assembly, John Shields is too much for Mr. Snider in answering the questions of Marco Trbovich, master of ceremonies.

Kay Adamcik; Mr. Nelse Baldwin, president of the Hammond Exchange Club; Mr. Ralph Thorsen, attorney; Jim Kelso; and Mr. Jack Kaluf, club member, were some of the key figures in the presentation of the Freedom Shrine by the Hammond Exchange Club.

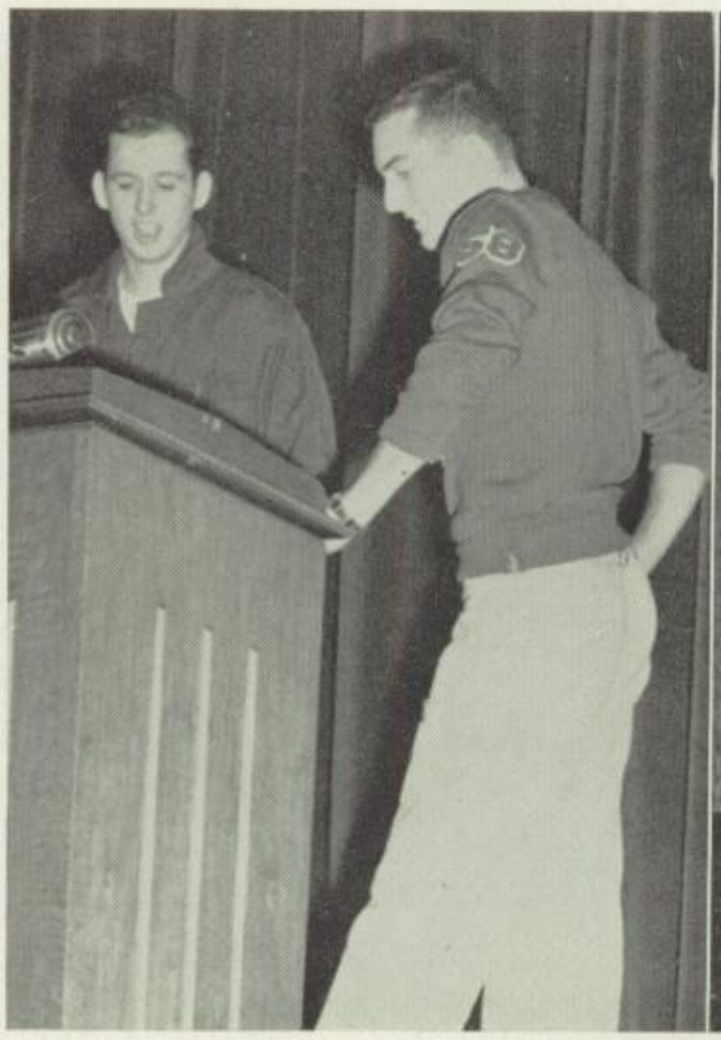


. . . Entertaining . . . Informing

Clark's chapter of the National Forensic League was awarded a plaque marking it as the outstanding chapter in Indiana. Professor Bruno Jacob, executive secretary of N.F.L. (second from right), made the formal presentation. Looking on are Shirley Ringgenberg, Mr. O. B. Hayward, and Mr. R. B. Miller, assistant superintendent of Hammond Public Schools.

To fire enthusiasm into players and fans, pep assemblies were frequently held before football and basketball games. Here John Shields and Jim Kelso at a pep assembly discuss the football team's chances.

History of American folk music was presented to Clark by Mr. Robert North and Miss Marilyn Klecka, professional entertainers.



Scene in the

This year at Clark the mode of the day called for the Ivy League look for boys and girls. Buckles, crew necks, car coats, and pin stripes dominated the scene. Blue jeans were practically extinct as they gave way to flannels or wash pants for boys, and Bermuda shorts or plaid slacks for girls.

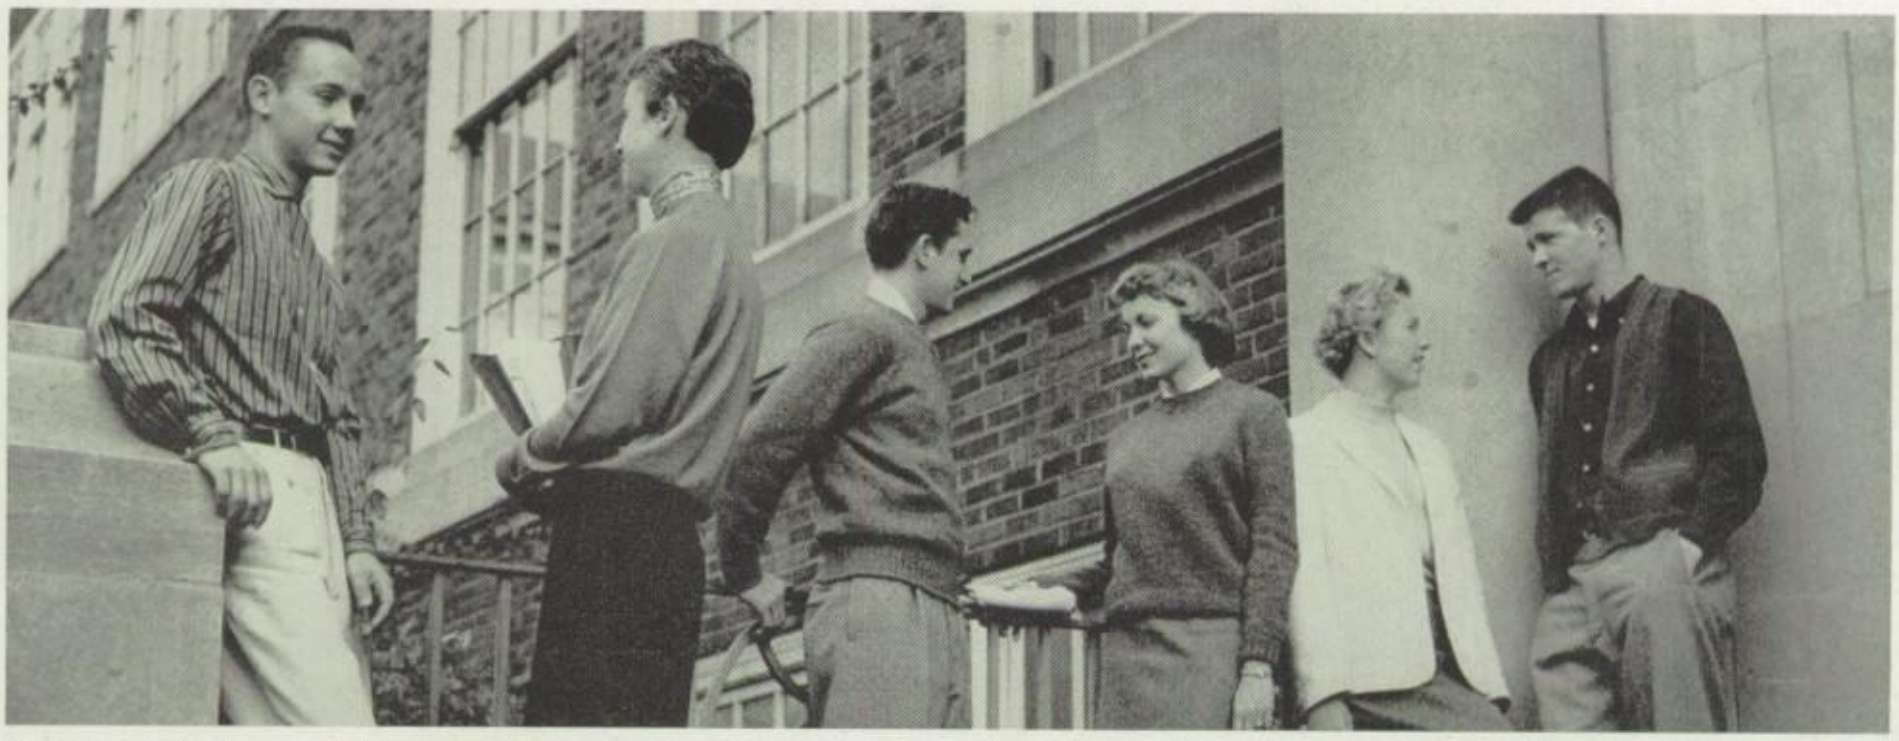
Shoes for both the fellows and girls featured variety: pointed toe high heels for dressing up, and all shades of suede for girls; while the boys, too, went for suede oxfords or glossy black loafers for school and dress.

Elvis Presley turns up in another familiar scene. June Tkacz and Kathleen Vereb's locker is loaded with books, coats, and every other conceivable thing.

Halls . . .

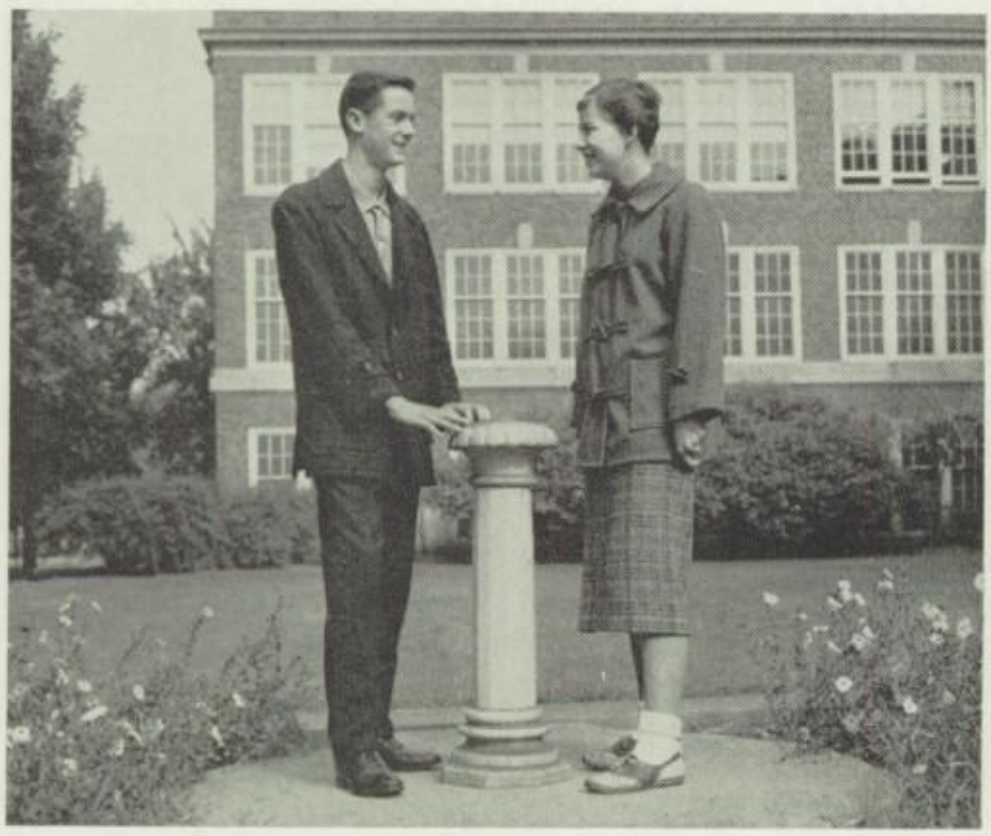
. . . Individuality as Well as Conformity

. . . In and Out of School



G.R.C. students sport the collegiate look; chatting in front of school are Joe Terranova in his Ivy League pin-striped shirt; Gerri Kacer, sweater and skirt; Bill Dean and Sharon Guy, crew necks; Denise Singer, blazer; and Jerry Smith, Ivy League shirt, vest, and trousers.

Coats have definite styles as here shown by Jan Coppi with a black-flecked suburban coat, and Jayne Koelling with a gray car coat with a hood and toggle buttons.



Buckles, symbol of the Ivy League style, turn up on almost everything, including Bermuda shorts and continental saddle shoes such as Irma Kristoff is wearing.

Working for a Common Goal . . .

Act I of "Our Hearts were Young and Gay" is rehashed by Miss Rhoda Kittelsen, Sharon Poppen, Sharon Guy, Diane Harper, Sharon Fisher, and Emily Sotak at the dress rehearsal.

"Twas the Night before Christmas" and A Cappella Choir is ready for St. Nick at the Winter Concert.

...Bringing about Perfection...

Drum major Dennis Moreland signals to the band during its football halftime show.

With watering mouths B. Dean, A. Novotny, B. Marion, and R. Preneta slice the pies they made in boys' foods.

...And Teamwork...

Clark's athletic department, directed by Mr. Ed Shields, has eight competitive sports: football, basketball, baseball, cross country, track, wrestling, tennis, and golf. It belongs to the Western Division of the Northern Indiana High School Conference.

In the school year of 1956-57 G.R.C. held fourth place in the all-sports standings of the twelve Western Division schools.

For the second straight year, the tennis team were league champions and second in Indiana. In basketball, Jim Harmon set a school scoring record with 30 points against Kenosha, Wisconsin in February.

Time out . . Clark's basketball team gather around Coach Ed Shields to receive instructions for their next strategy on the court.

Champions . . . At the C Club banquet Don Obuch and Coach Ed Martin present an enlarged picture of the championship tennis team to hang in the hall.

Reviving School Spirit . . .

Revival of the good Pioneer spirit (Mel Hobbs) is attempted in the mystic rites of the Zonga Zonga Indians, J. Wozniak (center), M. Kobe, D. Obuch, J. Figler, and M. Wozniak.

Fourth place in Indiana wrestling, 175 lb. class, was captured by Arnie Novotny.

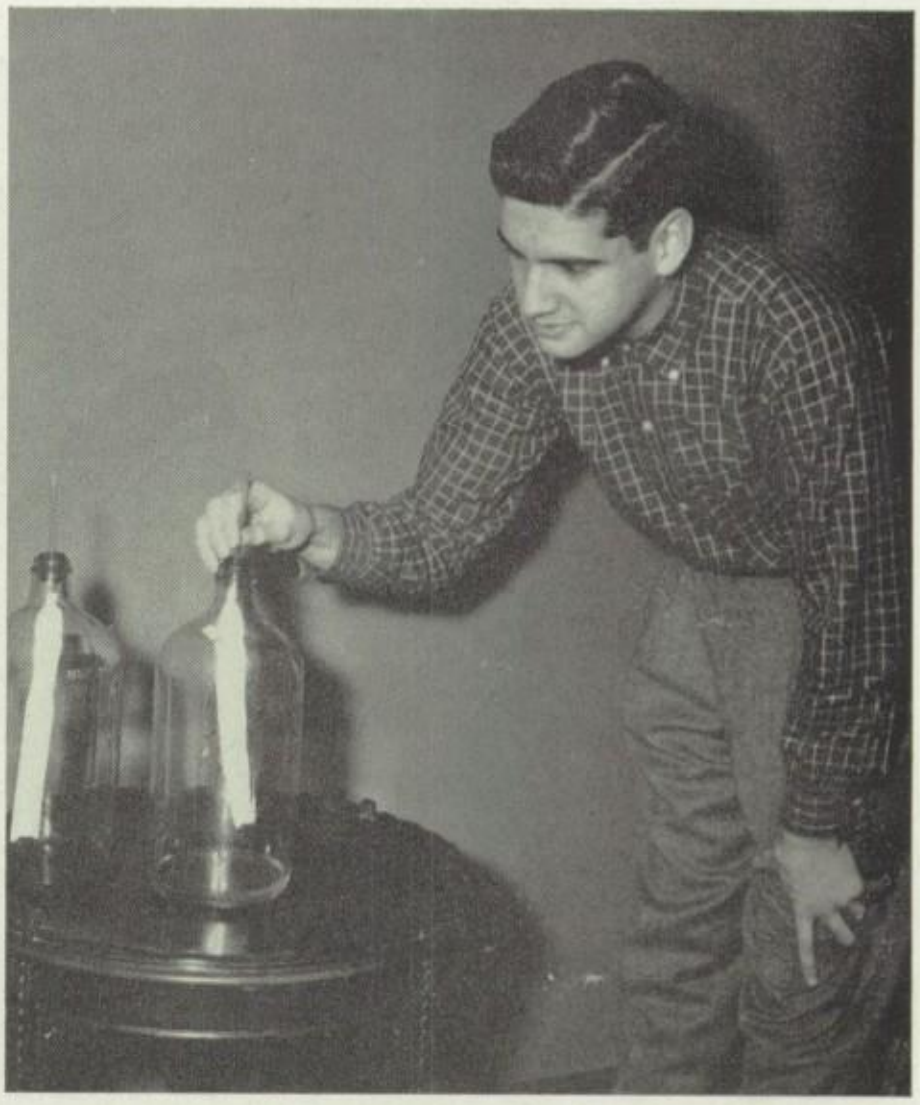
Choosing Royalty . . .

One of Santa's reindeer chaperones Joe Lickwar and Marilyn Bryton, king and queen of the Senior dance, "Silver Silhouettes."

Fat Malone, C Club president, escorts his date, Gretchen Duerr, to her throne as C Club Sweetheart.

Earning Recognition . . .

For making the highest school score on the Betty Crocker Future Homemaker examination, Lenore Maslikowski was named Clark's future homemaker.



Bausch and Lomb Company awarded its honorary science medal to Alvin Silvian because of his having the highest high school science scholastic record.

"I Speak for America" was the essay subject which was profitable for Maynard Kessler, Arlene Matis, and Carol Maus. They competed in a contest sponsored by the American Legion and qualified for the district finals.

Gaining Poise and Social Graces . . .

. . . Dancing and Dating

Chivalry is not dead as Matt Wozniak plays the role of a gentleman before he and his date, Barb Kussy, go to a dance at school.

Couples rock 'n roll at the Seniors' dressy dance, "Silver Silhouettes."

...Going Formal

Presidents of the Junior and Senior classes and their dates lead the grand march at the 1957 Junior-Senior Prom, "Lost in Loveliness."

Here are two of the 162 couples who attended the Prom at Madura's Danceland on June 7, 1957.

Touring the Nation's Capitol . . .

Students from the four Hammond public high schools embarked on a trip to Washington, D.C. from October 23-28, 1957. Twenty-two Clark students were included in this group.

The trip included transportation on the Erie Railroad's "Lake City" train; a sight-seeing tour of the capitol city including the Bureau of Printing and Engraving and the White House; an evening at the Casino Royale supper club; a trip along Skyline Drive in Virginia; and a night aboard the Old Bay Line Steamer.

On the steps at the Capitol grounds M. Keller, J. Badowski, A. Chrustowski, B. Small, J. Roznawski, and J. Makis, take a breather from the trip.

Graduating . . .

. . . Ending the Beginning

Tradition of the presentation of the Senior key to the Junior class president is carried out by Jim Kelso, president of the Junior class of '58, and Bob Ciesco, president of the Senior class of '57.

Suddenly they're Seniors, and Clark students realize that they are very close to becoming adults with adult responsibilities.

During their last year, they do as much as possible as a last fling. Job applications, tests for college, and college catalogues are familiar to them.

After graduation any one of a number of possibilities for future activities faces them: college, a job, military service, or marriage.

Graduation drew near for the class of 1957 as it now does for this year's Seniors.

Finding a Place in Society . . .

. . . Working and Having Fun in Activities

Learning Self-Government in Student Council

Representatives and alternates of the Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Arnold Corder, are selected by their respective homerooms. Seven presidential appointees and the officers comprise the cabinet. All must maintain a "C" average to be eligible for membership in the Council.

Meeting on alternate Wednesdays, this year's Council initiated Clark's second twenty-five years with a school spirit week. Another project of the Council was the organizing of school clubs to provide draperies for the cafeteria. The governing body also amended the Constitution so the election of officers in the future will be later in the year.

Clark's morning routine is carried out by George Vischak and Rae Lemmon, flag-raisers for the week.

Silver-Tongued Orators Also Called Debators

Debate and speech teams, coached by Mr. Arthur Erickson, talked their ways through contests in debate, drama, humor, poetry, extemporaneous speech, and original oratory. Through their activities they could earn membership in the National Forensic League.

Active parts in the High School Debator's Conference and the Student Legislative Assembly at Purdue University were taken by the entire group. Kokomo, Butler and Northwestern Universities, and Downers Grove were contest sites as the varsity debate team placed third in the Metropolitan Debate Union of Greater Chicago and were N. F. L. state champions.

National Forensic League — Row One: M. McCutcheon, S. Trombley, M. Oliver, S. Ringgenberg, R. Lemmon, D. Harper, J. Liehe, T. Berger, Mr. Arthur Erickson, sponsor; Row Two: P. Powell, P. Holden, M. Twenty-Four Elected to Honor Society

Thirty-three upperclassmen, including the nine who were elected last year, comprise the National Honor Society. These students met qualifications of leadership, character, service, and scholarship. A list of students in the upper third of the Junior and Senior classes was submitted to the teachers, who rated the students on the four qualities. The nine juniors and fifteen seniors with the highest ratings were then passed by a faculty committee, and they were notified of their membership in the National Honor Society.

Honor Society was organized for the purpose of creating enthusiasm for scholarship, promoting worthy leadership, and stimulating the desire to render service in the school.

Interests for Future Vocations . . .

FTA Journeys for Insight

In November, 1957, members of the Future Teachers of America attended the area FTA roundup in Griffith. Insight of the various ideas and problems was exchanged to help students to become teachers.

FTA's twenty-six members presented their annual dance during the second semester.

Future Teachers of America — Row One: G. Duerr, secretary; J. Liehe, vice-president; Miss Delores McCampbell, sponsor; J. Makis, president; A. Matis, treasurer; L. Abercrombie, J. Hric, program chairman; J. Koney, P. Burney; Row Two: J. Taylor, E. Pawlus, S. McLean, Pam Foale, L. Gilman, P. Hart, E. Dufallo, J. Richter; Row Three: S. Poppen, J. Koelling, J. Palko, B. Future Secretaries Plan

Girls in Secretaries' Club are planning to become secretaries and have the opportunity to learn more about their future vocations.

Meeting on the fourth Wednesday of the month, the girls are given demonstrations on the operation of business machines. Prominent secretaries of the area have been present at the meetings as guest speakers.

Secretaries' Club — Row One: A. Pafco, S. Dvorscak, J. Grogan, K. Ogren, M. Bryerton, M. Santay, M. Forauer; Row Two: Miss Joan Coughlan, sponsor; P. Gillard, K. Adamcik, J. Kurella, S. Antilla, R. Pazanin, J. Goginski, J. Capps

Girls Aid in Library

Checking books in and out, repairing worn volumes, sending overdue book reminders, and assembling displays for the library are a few of the duties of the girls in Library Club, sponsored by Miss Harriet Lake.

To spread Christmas spirit they decorated the library and its Christmas tree.

Library Club — Row One: B. Skaggs, J. Wojtena, secretary-treasurer; Miss Harriett Lake, sponsor; P. Markovich, president; Row Two: C. Srncik, B. Davis, P. Kandalec, A. Pafco, A. Two Nurses' Clubs Merge

This year the Freshman-Sophomore Nurses' Club and the Junior-Senior Nurses' Club combined to form an organization of 60 girls planning to become nurses.

Highlighting the program for this year were the visits of seven speakers who spoke to the group on the various phases of the nursing profession.

It is interesting to note that out of the ten girls from the Class of '57 who entered schools of nursing, nine were members of Nurses' Club.

Karen Rix, Lenore Nickel, and Orpha Beavers are on duty in the nurse's office to care for minor injuries, illnesses, or miscellaneous records needing to be kept.

Nurses' Club — Row One: J. Rzonca, L. Nickel, P. Dudzik, treasurer; P. Gillard, vice-president; J. Warzak, president; M. Oliver, program chairman; D. Gasinski, secretary; K. Rix, C. Nickel, M. Conservation Club Studies America's Resources

Keeping in mind their purposes of conservation and appreciation of natural resources, Conservation Club met once a month to study ways to save resources in school and in the country.

This summer the twenty-one members will have their annual picnic at the Dunes State Park. The club is sponsored by Miss Wanda Wilharm.

Individual Interests Exploited in Biology Club

Students participating in Biology Club have the privilege of working on their various individual interests in the biological field of science.

Divided to meet on alternate Wednesdays, the club consisted of twenty-four members. No officers were needed since Biology Club is a work organization.

Biology Club — Row One: K. Ready, J. Hackleman, B. Eshena, J. Paprocki, G. Butcher, R. Beitler, B. Yakish; Row Two: T. Gonsiorowski, D. Williams, B. Wilson, P. Hricz, E. Bojda, K. Brooks, D. Convos and Services by Hi Y

Hi Y, an organization promoting ideals of Christian living for young men, sent delegates to three conferences for Hi Y chapters in this district and in the state of Indiana.

Freshman-Sophomore Hi Y boys used their salesmanship techniques to sell schedule pencils for the football and basketball seasons. Their other services, which also helped them raise money for their activities, were selling pop and managing the check room at G.R.C. dances.

For charity they collected food for the Christmas dinners of needy families, and they sent articles overseas as a part of their world service.

Constituting Y Teens' program this year were the serving of refreshments at P.T.A. meetings, and the annual potato chip drive to raise funds for the Y.W.C.A.

Promoting friendship among people of all races, religions, and nationalities is the primary objective of the 43 members of Y Teens. Clark's group is one of eight high school groups in the area which meet monthly at the Hammond Y.W.C.A.

At a fall assembly the Red Cross sponsored a movie, "Knute Rockne-All American." Students paid twenty-five cents to attend the movie and also became high school members of the Junior Red Cross.

Among the many services performed by the Clark chapter of the Junior Red Cross was the filling of gift boxes for underpriveleged students overseas.

Kender, J. Lukacek, D. Gyurcsan, J. Adams, D. Simchak

Revising their constitution was the first task of the year for the Junior-Senior Girls' Club of Christian Service. Preparing a basket of food for a needy family at Thanksgiving and sending nut cups to St. Margaret's Hospital are examples of the services performed by the girls this year.

Sponsoring a dance, "Drifting Shadows," turned out to be a success and boosted the club treasury.

Under the direction of Mrs. Vera Erickson, the club met during the activity periods of the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

New Angles Incorporated in 1958 POWDER HORN

With 160 pages, the 1958 POWDER HORN was the largest yearbook ever published at Clark. Judy Richter, assisted by Rae Lemmon, was the editor.

Attending a two-week journalism institute at Indiana University last summer, the two editors formulated the theme and layouts, and learned the principles and ideas for yearbooks in telling the story of the year.

Work for the POWDER HORN was contracted to Indianapolis Engraving Company, S. K. Smith Company, and Benton Review Publishing Company, Inc. Representatives of these companies conferred with the staff on the various phases of the book.

Sponsored by Mr. George Muir, the POWDER HORN featured a second color, and informal shots in the underclass, faculty, and senior picture panels.

PIONEER NEWS in Twenty-fifth Year

Editors — Diane Harper, associate; Linda Gilman, editor-in-chief; Jayne Koelling, associate; Mr. George Muir, sponsor

News, features, sports, entertainment, and personal opinions and incidents were all presented to Clark students as the PIONEER NEWS completed its twenty-fifth year of publication.

This weekly, mimeographed paper is a member of the Indiana High School Press Association, Quill and Scroll, and has rated an "All-American" award from the National Scholastic Press Association for several years.

Mr. George Muir sponsored the newspaper for his third year. Linda Gilman, the first Junior to ever hold the position, headed the staff as editor-in-chief, and was assisted by Juniors Diane Harper and Jayne Koelling, associate editors.

Members of the staff attended the Indiana University Journalism Institute during the summer, and went to a meeting at Franklin College in Franklin, Indiana.

Music for Any Occasion . . .

Band Forms Honor Group

Under the direction of Mr. Carlyle Snider, the Clark band was divided into two groups. The Honors band, composed chiefly of Juniors and Seniors, met on Tuesday and Thursday. "B" band consisted of more inexperienced players. The combined band, numbering 65, performed in the January and May concerts, marched at all home football games, and marched in parades in the community.

Band members sold fudge to raise money for new equipment, music and repairs. A new baritone was purchased as was a stroboscope, which is a device for the tuning of instruments.

Clark's band has been invited to participate in the parade for the Lions' International convention to be held on Michigan Avenue in Chicago. Afterwards the members will attend a dinner given for them and for the Hammond High band.

187 in Four Classes

This year 187 students were in the regular vocal groups: A Cappella Choir, Girls' Choir, Girls' Chorus, and Boys' Chorus.

These groups spent many hours of rehearsal for the annual Winter and Spring concerts. The entire vocal music department participates in these two concerts, and also in the Baccalaureate in June.

A Cappella, the most advanced vocal group at Clark, went Christmas caroling at the Bank of Whiting, St. John School, and for the Whiting Woman's Club.

At the Honors' Day assembly, letters or eighth notes were presented to members who had amassed enough points by attending rehearsals and activities of their group.

Girls' Choir don their formals to sing in the winter concert, directed by Mr. William Wakeland.

Singing for Fun

All vocal ensembles met during their own time, receiving no credit or points toward music letters. At both the winter and spring concerts these groups were featured.

Girls' ensembles, Harmonettes and Melo Tones, met after school to rehearse for their performances which included the district ensemble contest. The twenty-one girls went Christmas caroling at Minas' Department Store. In addition, Harmonettes were featured at the winter concert of the Sinclair Research Laboratory male chorus in Harvey, Illinois.

Harmoneers was open to boys who enjoy singing. They appeared before several local groups. Four Seniors in Harmoneers formed a quartet as a separate ensemble. They combined with eight Harmonettes for a madrigal group, the first at Clark. Madrigal singers sing a cappella and undirected, and specialize in Old English folk songs.

Orchestra Officers and Director — G. Baiden, secretary-treasurer; A. Silvian, vice-president; Mr. Darwin Eret, director; D. Kaminsky, librarian; J. Kurella, president

Under the direction of Mr. Darwin Eret, the orchestra busied itself playing for the city music festival, Baccalaureate, commencement, and two concerts.

"Plymouth Rock," the orchestra's dance, was presented on November 27 as a Thanksgiving event. During the spring of the year, members sold sweet treats at their annual bake sale to raise funds.

Participating in the district and state solo and ensemble contests in February, and the city solo contest in May added to orchestra's busy agenda.

New Drama Club Chartered

To further interest and experience in the fields of acting, interpretation, directing and mechanics of stage, and to gain insight to the true meaning of literary works is the purpose of Clark's newly-formed Drama Club. The Masquers, as they call themselves, casted, acted in, produced, and directed two one-act plays presented in an assembly.

This group, sponsored by Miss Rhoda Kittelsen, obtained a charter to the National Thespian Society, an honorary association for drama students. Getting the charter required the club's having ten members who were active in directing or acting in school plays. These members were rated by a point system according to size of part, length and type of play, and actual amount of time contributed on the play.

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" Features Sixteen from

"You got the stowaway!" The ship's purser reveals that Emily is a heroine, not a murderess, because she stunned the man overboard with a deck chair.

"I'm practicing my swimming in case we hit an iceberg and sink." The first night on ship finds Emily a bit nervous, and Cornelia reassures her.

"Your trunks are all here, Miss." The Steward smiles amiably in spite of the fact that he carried all of the girls' trunks to their cabin.

Class of 1959

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," a comedy by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, was given by the Junior class, directed by Miss Rhoda Kittelsen.

Cornelia (Diane Harper) and Emily (Sharon Guy), the authoresses, were to embark on an ocean voyage to Paris. They made life difficult for the Steward (Dick Bunn), who struggled with their trunks. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner (Dave Tharp and Sharon McLean) were Cornelia's parents. On ship the girls met two Harvard medical students, Dick Wynter and Leo McEvoy (Ed Swenson and Dennis Falaschetti). Two British girls, Harriet St. John and Winifred Blaugh (Sharon Fisher and Emily Sotak), breezed in and out. Emily succeeded in capturing a stowaway and was congratulated by the Purser, the Admiral, and the Stewardess (Maynard Kessler, Allan Susoreny, and Nancy Carlson).

When the Health Inspector (Arlene Walczak) entered the cabin, she found Cornelia had measles. In Paris, the girls stayed in a mansion owned by Madame Elsie and her daughter, Therese (Mary Keller and Alta Mitchell). Monsieur de la Croix (Dennis Moreland) gave Cornelia acting lessons. Popping in and out at intervals was the Window Cleaner (Mike Kobe).

"But what if Emily drowns?" Cornelia despairs over the suspected loss of Emily, her cabinmate.

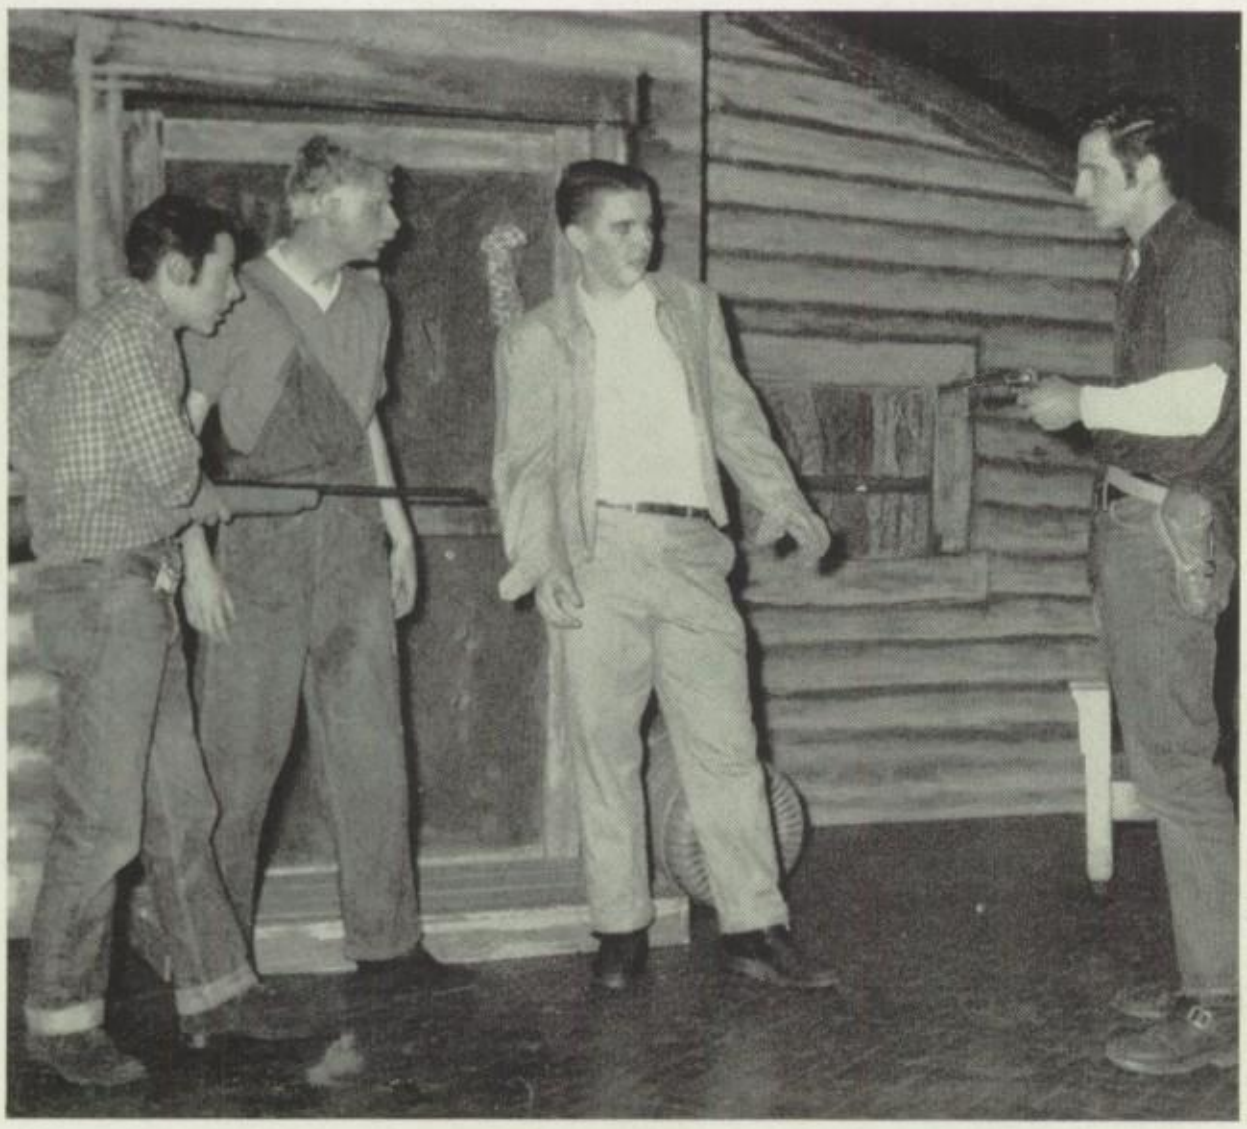
Romance between a girl born and reared in the Blue Ridge Mountains and a young surveyor from the North, June Tolliver and Jack Hale, provided the theme for "Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Family feuds and a mysterious murder were just two of the complications woven into the plot. The romance developed, but conflicts from June's father, brother, and a distant cousin in love with her, Jud, Bud, and Dave Tolliver, arose.

Ole Hon and Uncle Billy Beams added spice to the play with their constant wrangling. The bewilderment of Ellie Mae, who "jest cain't remember," and the pranks of Loretty, June's mischievous cousin, kept the audience laughing. In spite of obstacles, June got her man in the riotous but happy ending.

Cast members line up for final curtain call. They are M. Schlater, J. Wilson, K. Sampson, M. Hobbs, P. Funcik, G. Vischak, K. Rix, B. Etheridge, D. Stevenson, K. Ogren, D. Obuch, L. Rollinson, K. Zvonar, and R. Anton.

Womenfolk of the play, K. Zvonar, M. Schlater, P. Funcik, K. Rix, J. Wilson and K. Sampson, gather in front of the Tolliver cabin to inspect a book which has been brought from the North to the mountains.



"Ya ain't got no call comin' down hy'ar and stealin' mah gal." Dave Tolliver brandishes a gun to threaten Jack Hale, the city engineer.

Modern Dance in Spring Concert

"Stardust" was one of the numbers sung by the girls' chorus as an accompaniment to a dance number by Modern Dance at the Spring Concert on March 13, 1958. The girls in Modern Dance created their dances which feature interpretation of the moods they find in music.

Practices were held every week. At first the girls exercised, and later they passed tests to become regular members of the group as selected by Miss Leota Kenzie, sponsor.

Rousing Cheers from Boosters

At every sports contest this year, Booster Club members could be seen and heard as they cheered the Pioneer teams. During the tourneys, and at other basketball games they wore white. Even the boys expressed their school spirit as they joined the Booster Club to add masculine voices to the cheering, giving Clark the best cheering section in the Calumet region.

Sponsored by Miss Dolores McCampbell, Boosters also sold decals and monogram pins, and painted signs.

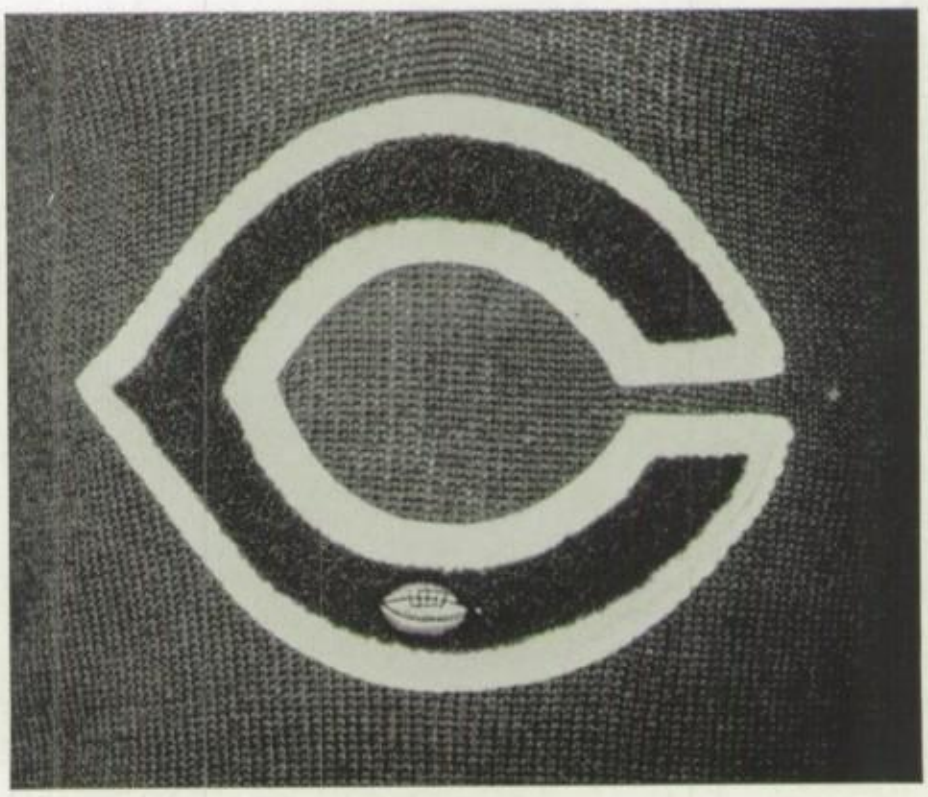
C Club Joins Boosters in Cheering . . .

Clark lettermen, members of C Club, led the way for the revival of Pioneer spirit as they sat in the cheering section at all basketball games. Setting a precedent in their C Club sweaters, they made popular the cheer, "Go, go, go."

Every day after school, and at all home football games, the lettermen sold popcorn. The revenue from these sales was used to purchase C Club awards and jackets for deserving members and champions.

Formalities were observed by the boys at their dance, where they selected Gretchen Duerr as C Club queen, and at their annual spring banquet.



Athletic achievement is honored by the awarding of a letter and an invitation to join C Club.

Clark's tennis team, coached by Mr. Edwin Martin, won the Western Division championship for the second year in a row. After losing the first match of the season to East Chicago Washington, the Pioneer squad compiled nine straight victories to capture the crown once again.

Clark was in the thick of the pennant race with Tech and Washington as its closest rivals. Other opponents were Hammond High, Whiting, and East Chicago Roosevelt.

Highlighting the season was the cinching of the Western Division title when the Pioneers defeated Washington in the last match of the season. The varsity squad journeyed to South Bend Adams where they were defeated 4-1 for the state championship, thus bringing GRC second in Indiana tennis.

Graduating lettermen are Steve Ban and Nikki Kutansky, while lettermen Dennis Barton, Mike Barton, Dick Kania, Mark Popovich, and Bob Yakish will be back again next year.

Two Wins Bring Second Place in City

With only two wins all season, Clark's football team still came in second in the Hammond public school ratings by defeating Hammond High and Tech.

Defeating Hammond High came as the prep upset of the year. Sapyta and Novotny set up the Pioneer's first touchdown by nailing Wildcat Lou Reynolds on the Cats' 12-yard line for an 18-yard loss. Three plays later, Bob Marion and the Pioneer line rolled into the end zone for the touchdown. In the third quarter, after Malone and Wozniak set up play, Marion again roared across the goal line.

Defense played a major role as the Pioneers withstood Tech bids for t.d.'s three times. In the second quarter Freckelton romped 89 yards for the touchdown.

Season play ended with a hard-fought, but losing battle with Whiting. In the other games, Clark lost five in a row to Morton, Roosevelt, Washington, Rensselaer, and Horace Mann.

Upending Whiting 12-0, Clark's B squad football team finished its six-game schedule. The first touchdown of the game was set up by a six-yard pass from Balozs Volom to Dave Talabay. Later, the team scored again on the same play.

Defeated only once, the team bowed to Hammond High, 20-6.

Balozs Volom scored the first touchdown as the Jayvees trampled Tech, 20-0. Manuel Gonzales and Dave McClure each scored on passes from Dave Ogren, who also kicked both of the extra points.

Other games found the Settlers downing Morton 20-14, Calumet Township 6-0, and Valparaiso 12-7.

Frosh Post .500

Clark's Freshman football team posted a season record of three wins and three losses.

In the downing of Tech, Walt Paskwietz scored twice for the score of 12-0. Jim Benak hit paydirt three times as Irving was defeated 27-7. Cross-town rival Whiting was conquered by the Homesteaders, 26-6.

. . . Four Wins, Including Rival Whiting

Coach Ed Shields' varsity basketball team started their 1957-58 season by winning two games. A seven-game losing skein followed before the next win came. Lew Wallace was the victim.

As always cross-town rival Whiting was a game to be anticipated, and the Pioneers emerged victorious. Playing host to Kenosha, Wisconsin, a team ranked high in that state, the roundballers won again. Gary Emerson was the team's other victim.

Thrilling to see, but heart-breaking to lose, Clark's sectional opener with Morton ended in defeat, 58-50. Only in the last minutes of the game did Morton build up that large a lead. Previous to that, 6,200 fans in the East Chicago Washington gym witnessed a real see-saw battle.

Averaging about 6′1″, the Pioneer team was one of the tallest in years with 6′4″ Jim Harmon and 6′3″ Art Mehuron and Jerry Smith. This height payed off in Mehuron's 299 rebounds and Harmon's 260 rebounds.

Jim Harmon and John Shields led the team in scoring averages with 42% and 37% respectively. Harmon broke the school record for the most points in one game, set by Basil Kristoff in 1953, by scoring 30 points against Kenosha. Harmon also hit 51 of 70 free throw attempts to earn the free throw trophy with an average of 72%.

Basketball . . .

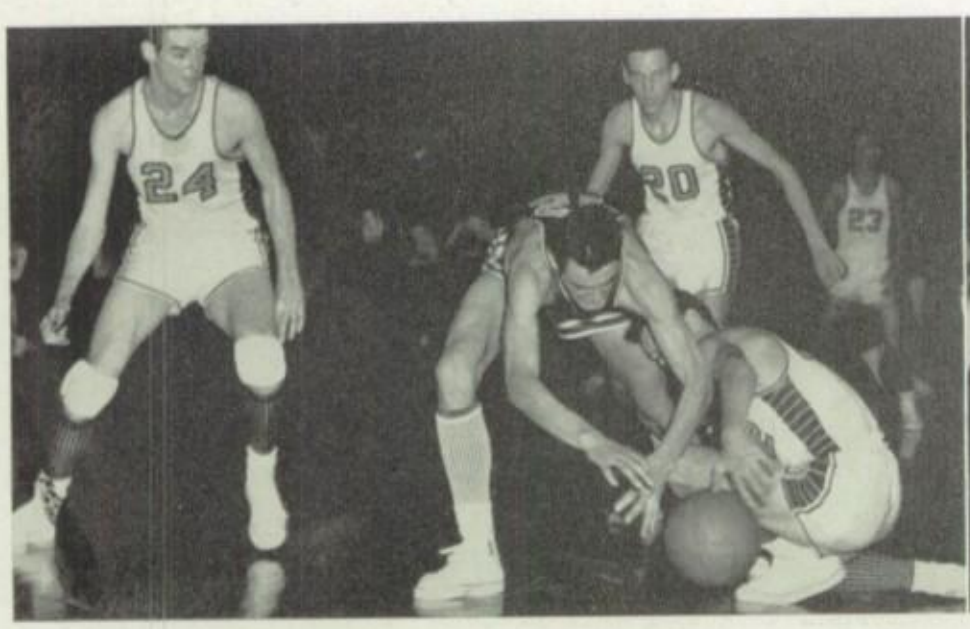
Hoopsters line up to "get that ball." Pioneers (in dark uniforms) are Jack Mateja, Jim Harmon, and Art Mehuron.

Basketball Coaches — Mr. Steve Stavros, B-squad coach: Mr. Ed Shields, varsity coach; Mr. Norm Banas, freshman coach

Varsity Cheerleaders — J. Kalina, R. Anton, K. Zvonar, M. Oliver, N. Tkach, and G. Kacer in their basketball outfits.

Jim Harmon grapples for an elusive basketball.



"Keep away!" Mark Popovich seems to be playing dodgeball, and Jim Harmon (42) is chagrined over the situation.

Freshmen City Champs

The two four-game winning streaks plus three other wins brought Coach Norman Banas' Homesteaders a season record of eleven wins and six losses. By defeating Hammond High, they shared the Hammond championship with HHS.

Playing a spoiler's role, the team dealt Covington its first loss in three years, and Washington and Hammond High their only season losses. Other wins were over Morton (three times), Tech and Irving (twice), and Whiting (once).

Freshman Basketball Team — Kneeling: J. Warner, D. Williams, managers; Row One: D. Kollowitz, D. Shimala, T. Shields, D. Hmurovich, T. Barlo, A. Roy; Row Two: J. Paskwietz, D. Hruskoci, B. Wilson, J. Benak, S. Frenchik, G. Thoren, W. Paskwietz, B. Girman, B. Shumaker

B-Squad Revenge; Defeat Morton

Defeating Thornton Fractional, South Bend Washington, Whiting, and the season-finisher, Morton, the B-squad basketball team achieved a season's record of four wins and eleven losses. Their moment of glory came at the North Judson Holiday Tourney when the Settlers won both of their games to win the championship trophy.

Freshman Tom Shields led the scorers with 61; Frenchik had 55 points, and Benak had 23.

Baseballers

John Shields at bat, and Pat Malone, catching, wait for the pitch.

Headed by Coach Emerson Aldrich, Clark's 1957 baseballers found rough sailing in their first two games as they were defeated by Lowell and Whiting, but they bounced back with a 9-0 score over Gary Emerson. After dropping the next two contests to Gary Froebel and Hammond Tech, the hardballers took eight out of the following eleven games. The season ended with a nine win and seven loss record and a tie for third place in the final Western Division standings.

Rudy Kutansky, winner of the Most Valuable Player and batting awards, paced the hardballers with a .375 batting average with 18 hits and 12 runs scored. Don Kurcz led in RBI's with eight and slated a pitching record of four wins and three losses.

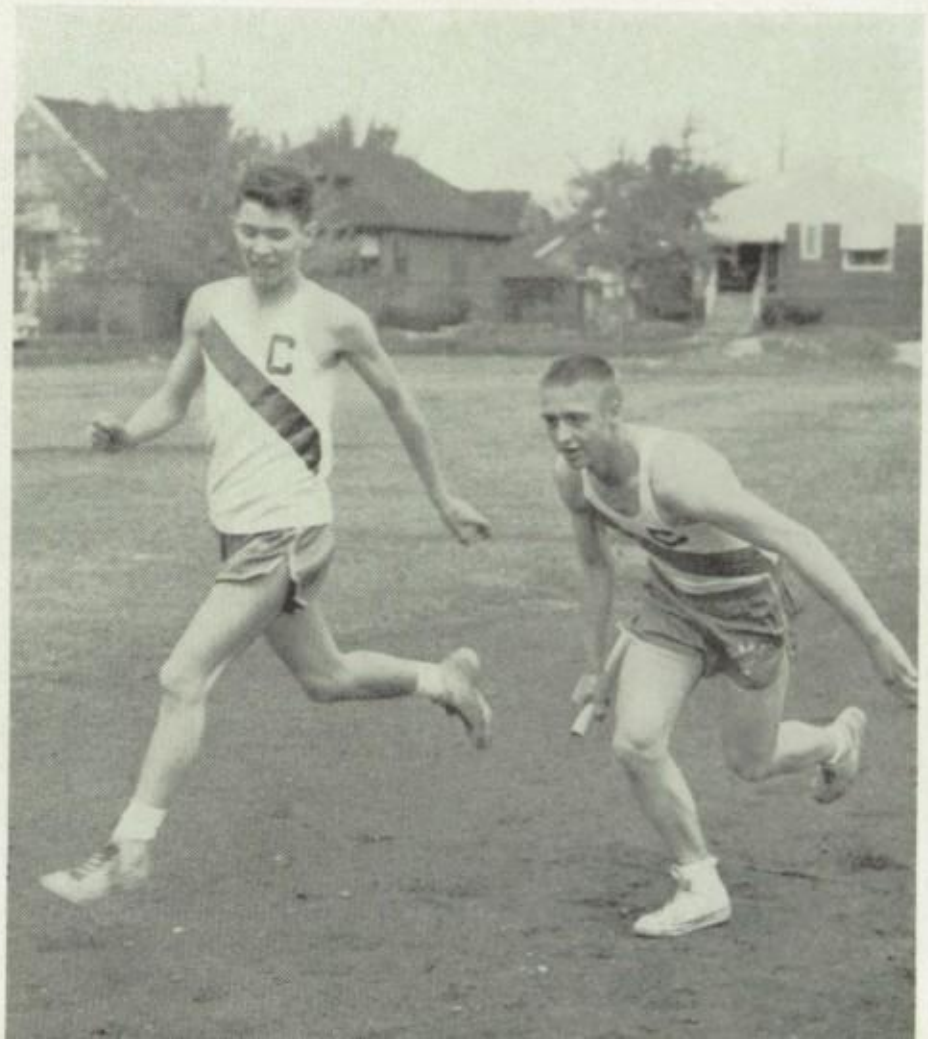
Cindermen Come Fourth in Three Meets . . .

Trackmen Enter State Meet

Coach Joe Franklin's trackmen finished fourth in the Western Division Standings and fourth in both the city indoor and outdoor meets. In the sectional they came home with fifth place out of sixteen teams. Clark finished fifth in the LaPorte Invitational Meet.

Six events qualified for the regional track meet. They were Floyd Turner, high jump; Dick Dubish, pole vault; Walt Kelderman, mile run; Earl Fruehling, 220-yard dash; Bob Ciesco, 88-yard dash; and Paskwietz, Laterneau, Ciesco and Fruehling, half-mile relay team. Two of these events, the half-mile relay team and the 220-yard dash, qualified for the state track meet in Indianapolis.

Charles Umlauf hands off to Walt Kelderman for that final sprint to the finishing line.



Varsity Cross Country Team — Row One: D. Gootee, W. Kelderman, B. Saylor, F. Prusinski, R. Cavanaugh; Row Two: J. Paprocki, J. Murzyn, J. Dana, M. Kobe, J. Coppi, Mr. Ed Shields, coach

Harriers in First Conference Schedule

Clark's varsity cross country team tied for seventh place in the Western Division in the first year that a conference schedule has been in effect. Though they were not able to make it seven years in a row without a defeat in dual meets, they finished with a record of eight wins and six losses.

Reserves compiled a record of ten wins and three losses as they finished second in Western Division standings. The Freshmen were city champions, and Dan Kollwitz set a new city record.

Walt Kelderman qualified for the state meet in Indianapolis and finished 64th.

Freshman-Sophomore Cross Country Team — Row One: B. Balog, J. Sima, A. Roy, J. Paskwietz, Dan Kollwitz, J. Slacanin, J. Srncik, J. Conway, J. Mikula, J. Martinez; Row Two: G. Metcalf, J. Grappler Places Fourth in State

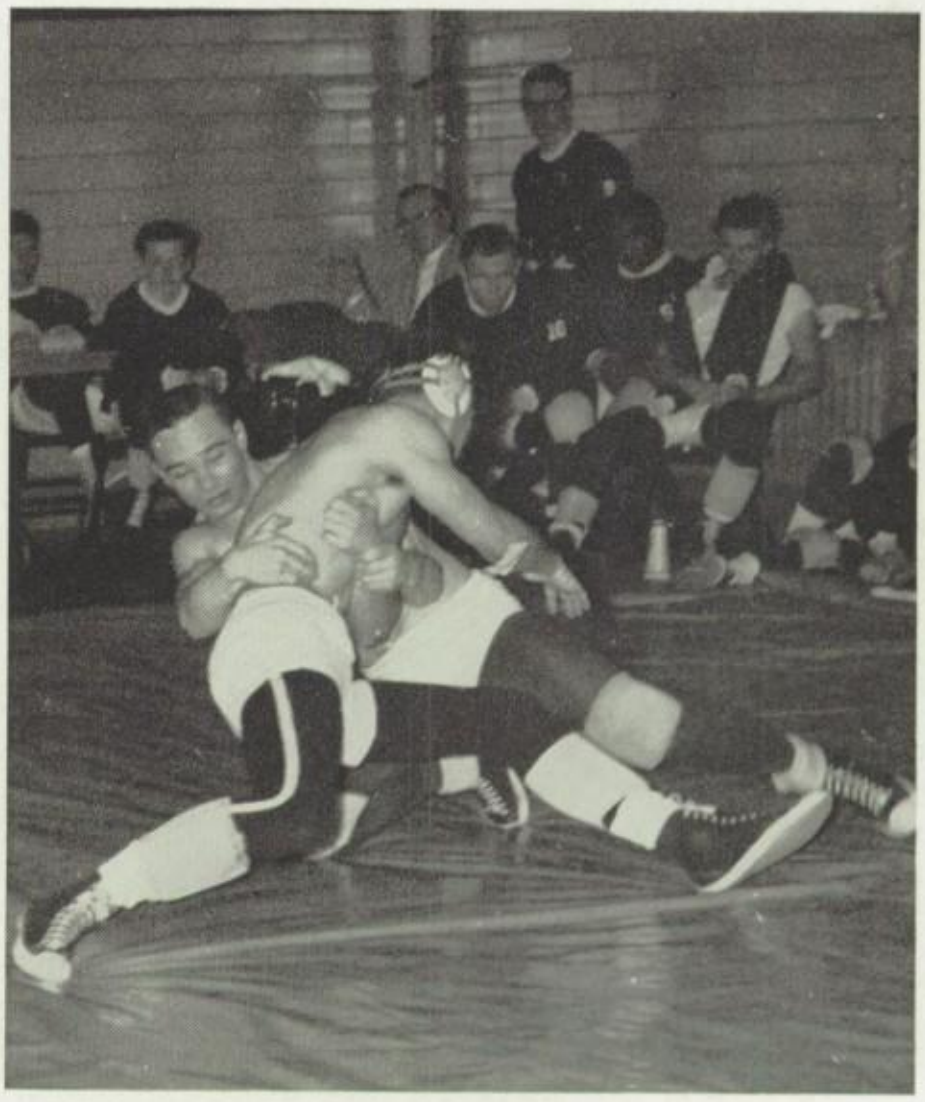
Coached by Mr. Ray Williams and managed by Mickey Smiga, the wrestling team finished with four wins and eight defeats. Matmen defeated teams from East Chicago Roosevelt, Hammond High, Tech, and Noll. Losses were suffered at the hands of Tech, South Bend Adams, Roosevelt, Thornton Fractional, Crown Point (twice), South Bend Central, and East Chicago Washington.

In the wrestling sectional held at East Chicago Washington on February 8, Arnie Novotny placed first in the 175 lb. class, and Bill Hoover placed second in the 120 lb. class. A second in the regional meet entitled Novotny to enter the state finals at Lafayette. In these matches he captured fourth place in the entire state for his weight class. Novotny's regular season's record held fourteen wins against only one defeat.



Ken Helmick grapples with a Roosevelt Rider for a pin.

Turfmen in Third Place

Golf Team — Row One: D. Kania, C. Kosalko, P. Wojtena; Row Two: J. Campbell, J. Kirn, B. Rosentein, Mr. Al Peterson, coach; Row Three: J. Lawson, R. Balko, G. Raddermacher, J. McCaig

Coach Al Peterson's golf team, using their drivers and putters, blasted their way into third place in the Western Division. Their overall record was four wins and six losses. Highlighting the season were the LaPorte Invitational Tournament and the sectional at LaPorte.

Letter winners were Balko, Campbell, Kirn, Lawson, and Rosentein. Balko is the only returning letterman, but he will have strong teammates in Kania and Wojtena.

Rich Balko demonstrates his letter-winning form.

Four Sports Offered in G.A.C.

Membership in the Girls' Athletic Club is open to any girl who participates actively in two or more sports: softball, basketball, swimming, or bowling. Another of G.A.C.'s activities is the selling of refreshments at all home football games.

Early in the fall, a picnic was held to acquaint freshmen and other new members with present members. Held at Marquette Park in Gary, the picnic featured races and games with freshmen and "big sisters."

Climaxing the year for G.A.C. was the annual Mother-Daughter banquet where monograms and letters were awarded. The Senior girl with the highest number of points received a special pin, new officers were announced, and formal initiation of members was held.

"Coffee, please." Kay Adamcik, Susie Vater, Pat Brenkus, Jean Makis, and Carol Ayres short order at the football games.

What's My Line?

Helen Wulkow

Now join the panel and play What's My Line. Three asterisks  indicate "yes"; two asterisks  indicate "no."

Miss Wulkow, you handle the chalk as if you often write on the blackboard. Is this true?  Do you deal in services?  Do both men and women participate in these services?  Do you work for a profit-making institution? **

Are these young people whom you meet at scheduled intervals?  Is a college education required for your occupation?  Do your services improve the health of these people? **

In Shakespeare's As You Like It the melancholy Jaques muses:

> All the world's a stage . . .
> And one man in his time plays many parts,
> His act being seven ages.

Does your vocation concern the second age, the schoolboy?  Do you teach English and literature in a public school? ***

We must now discover your specific relationship with these young people. You are wearing an evening dress. Are you a director of certain social activities?  May I see your charm bracelet? Does the silver tree, engraved The Trail of the Lonesome Pine, represent a class play?  An open umbrella, a Chinese dragon, a crescent and star, and a reindeer are charms linked together. Are these symbols of four dances you have sponsored?  This disk bears the name of George Rogers Clark High School as well as the insignia, "Religion, Morality, Knowledge." The mortarboard is inscribed "1958." Are you the sponsor of the Class of 1958? ***

Senior Class History

Their story began four years ago, when, as timorous and reticent freshmen, they, the graduates of 1958, commenced their career as Clarkites. Under the guidance of Miss Helen Wulkow, class sponsor, and the leadership of George Vischak, president, John Figler, vice-president, Susie Vater, secretary, and John Shields, treasurer, they held their first dance, "April Showers." Cheering the Homesteaders on to a 13-5 record were Roz Anton, Marianne Forauer, Mary Lou Oliver, and Kathy Zvonar. The "Greenhorn Gazette" published highlights of freshman personalities and activities.

As sophomores they elected Arnold Novotny president, Jack Mateja vice-president, Shirley Ringgenberg secretary, and Phyllis Janas treasurer. Joan Kurella was the only sophomore in the all-school play, "The Bat." Art Mehuron and John Shields were on the varsity basketball team. The presentation of the class dance, "Oriental Jive," and the selection and receiving of class rings were the outstanding events of their sophomore year.

Then they were upperclassmen. Jim Kelso, Jack Mateja, Phyllis Janas, and John Shields were the officers for their junior year. Seven juniors participated in the all-school play, "You Can't Take It With You." The special feature of the dance, "Blue Moon," was the crowning of Dan Pryzbyl and Judy Grogan as king and queen. "Nothing succeeds like success" was chosen as the class motto, powder blue and silver as class colors, and the powder blue carnation as the class flower. Junior thespians performed in the class play, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." "Lost in Loveliness", the Prom, climaxed the year.

Then they were almighty, powerful Seniors. Gene Kuzma, Nikki Kutansky, Marilyn Bryerton, and Judy Grogan were Senior class officers. They began their final year by having their pictures snapped for the POWDER HORN. At the games cheerleaders Roz Anton, Gerri Kacer, Judy Kalina, Mary Lou Oliver, Nancy Tkach, and Kathy Zvonar led the vociferous Seniors in backing the Pioneers. Shirley Ringgenberg copped the D.A.R. award. Name card and announcement ordering; cap and gown measuring; and banquet, prom, class day, Baccalaureate, and finally graduation planning occupied the days leading to graduation of the Class of '58.

Mr. O. B. Hayward . . . B.A. and M.A.

Mr. Hayward Finishes Eighth Year

Since 1950 Mr. O. B. Hayward has been serving as the principal of George Rogers Clark High School. Mr. Hayward has in the past been the principal of several other Hammond public schools. This administrative head went to college at Brown University and Illinois State Normal University, getting his master's degree from the University of Chicago.

His greatest hobby is traveling. Thus far Mr. Hayward has confined his travels to the United States, but he has hopes of someday journeying abroad.

In reference to his experiences at Clark, he has said, "I have been interested in helping the school adapt itself in the best possible way to its changing needs."

Mr. Hayward advises all students to direct their scholastic, social, extra-curricular, and family activities in the right direction.

Mr. Hayward confers with Dave Stevenson on college plans.

Administration

Robertsdale Area Man on School Board

Another busy school year has been completed by the Hammond School Board. The members of this council are responsible for general policies in Hammond's public schools. Under their jurisdiction are the building of additional educational facilities, purchasing of land or school equipment, appointment and transfer of teachers, and dealing with various problems arising during the school year.

New to the board this year is Mr. Edwin G. Wiley. This new member will be the first resident of the Robertsdale section of Hammond to serve on the council for twenty years.

Hammond School Board — Row One: Dr. H. W. Eggers, Mr. C. N. Scott, Mrs. Margaret J. Allen, Mr. Lee L. Caldwell, superintendent; Row Two: Mr. R. B. Miller, assistant superintendent; Mr. C. Schonert, Mr. E. G. Wiley, Mr. C. Smith, Mr. D. Gavit

Counseling Their Job

Counselors at Clark help students find their aptitudes and then help them to develop them. In addition to this, the counselors check attendance, make up schedules for students, give aptitude tests, and sponsor school activities.

Miss Veva McAtee, Director of Guidance, sponsors National Honor Society and takes charge of attendance. She has her Bachelor of Arts degree, Master of Arts, and an honorary science degree.

Mr. Arnold Corder is counselor of the Senior and Sophomore classes and sponsors Student Council. He has his Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees.

Staffs Aid Efficient Operation

Girls Friday in Office

"Put this in tomorrow's bulletin." This isn't MY eighth hour." "A folder with pockets, please." Each day G.R.C.'s office staff hear comments such as these. Other tasks keeping them busy are distributing supplies, preparing financial accounts, assigning lockers, and keeping the books "straight" for the various departments of the school.

Office Staff — Mrs. Esther Jacobs, Mr. Hayward's secretary; Mrs. Charlene Salle, bookkeeper; Miss Carole Stanton, supplies

Cooks Quell Hunger

Every morning the halls of Clark are filled with the aromas of food being prepared in the cafeteria. The cafeteria staff are responsible for an important part of the school-lunch. Meals are served to faculty and students from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Cafeteria Staff — Mrs. Lillian Adams, Mrs. Christine Krull, Mrs. Anna Root, Mrs. Mary Vargo

Janitors Keep School Clean

Spending long hours cleaning and sweeping the classrooms and halls, and caring for the school grounds, the janitorial staff is always ready for calls of "My locker is jammed," or "Could you fix the light in room 223?" Through their continuous efforts, the school building and grounds are kept clean and attractive.

What's Their Future?

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to success in one of America's basic industries—steel. They decided, as we hope you will decide, to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeymen machinists, carpenters, or electricians . . . some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working the open hearth shops, the cold rolling, or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses at Purdue or Indiana extension centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company—INLAND STEEL.
